Subject: Coverage summary

Dear All,

Please find below a summary report of the coverage from the LMC conference, press releases issued on the day from Chaand here about his speech and on care homes here (story discussed with journalists over the weekend).

- Chaand appeared on ITV afternoon and evening bulletins talking about his speech, you can see the clip used here – BMA representatives appeared on BBC local radio as well on the same subject, our representatives were also on Good Morning Britain on Friday about our concerns with the CQC.
- There were 328 mentions of Chaand's speech in the regional media over the weekend and today, an example from the Express and Star here.

- The care homes story saw Chaand appear on BBC Radio Four's today programme this morning and Five Live, with Richard Vautrey also appearing on LBC.
- Print coverage for the care homes story appeared in the Mail, as well as the Guardian and other newspapers.
- Kailash Chand wrote in Friday's Guardian about the need for urgent action to address the crisis facing general practice as highlighted by the motions at the conference.
- GP online ran a series of articles about the issues being teased out by the conference, including possible solutions, the plight of younger GPs, the challenges to the independent contractor model and the mood within the profession.
- There was a great deal of other coverage in the trade media which is still on their respective websites.

Kind regards

Paul Gadsby
